Case No. CV01-22-6789

COURTROOM DECORUM ORDER

Spectators must remain silent during all proceedings. There will be no talking, outbursts, shaking of heads, signs, signals, or any other actions that are distracting, disruptive or prejudicial indications of approval or disapproval of any testimony, statement, actions, rulings, or proceedings.

No cell phones, smart phones, cameras, recording devices, pagers, computers, tablets or other such electronic devices are allowed in the courtroom by spectators, unless specifically allowed by the Court.

No signs, banners, buttons, clothing, accessories, or anything else with any distracting, disruptive, prejudicial, or inappropriate message may be brought into, worn or displayed in the courtroom. Spectators must be dressed in appropriate courtroom attire.

All spectators will sit in the area where directed by the Court Marshal. Spectators must be seated when proceedings begin and remain seated. Spectators may leave at any time, but those who leave during proceedings will not be readmitted until the next recess.

The atmosphere in the courtroom must be quiet, calm, and deliberative. Evidence may be complex, graphic, emotional, and may be tedious at times. All spectators must be willing to commit to a serious attitude if attending the trial.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
