EXHIBIT A

Definitions

Unless otherwise indicated, the following definitions shall apply to these discovery requests:

The word “you,” “your,” or “yours,” shall mean PhysicalAddress.com, and any person acting or purporting to act on its behalf, including without limitation, all present and former agents, representatives, personnel, attorneys, accountants, consultants, experts, investigators or other persons.

The term “document” or “documents” shall mean the original, all copies and drafts of papers and writings of every kind, description and form, whether handwritten or typed, and all mechanical, magnetic media and electronic recordings, records and data of every kind, description and form, and all photographs of every kind, and including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following: correspondence, letters, notes, e-mails, computer files, memoranda, reports, notebooks, binders, drawings, studies, analyses, drafts, diaries, calendars, datebooks, appointment books, day-timers, intra- or inter-office communications, canceled checks, minutes, bulletins, circulars, pamphlets, instructions, work assignments, messages (including reports, notes and memoranda of telephone conversations and conferences), telephone statements, calendar and diary entries, desk calendars, appointment books, job or transaction files, books of account, ledgers, bank statements, promissory notes, invoices, charge slips, working papers, graphs, charts, evaluation or appraisal reports, pleadings, transcripts of testimony or other documents filed or prepared in connection with any court or agency or other proceeding, contracts, agreements, assignments, instruments, charges, opinions, official statements, prospectuses, appraisals, feasibility studies, licenses, leases, invoices, computer printouts or programs, summaries, audio, video or sound recordings, cassette tapes, video recorded, electronic or laser recorded, or photographed information. Documents are to be taken as including all attachments, enclosures and other documents that are attached to, relate to or refer to such documents. Documents are also to include all electronically stored information (“ESI”) made, maintained, retained, stored, or archived by computer or electronic means in any medium, including but not limited to word processing documents, email, email attachments, databases, spreadsheets, writings, drawings, graphs, photographs, sound recordings, images, data, and data compilations. Documents shall also include prior versions of information, as defined above, as well as all attachments, and shall include information stored on personal digital assistants, cell phones, Blackberries, personal laptop computers, hard drives, portable hard drives, and other similar devices.

The term “communication” shall mean every manner of transmitting or receiving facts, information, opinions, or thoughts from one person to another person, whether orally, by documents, writing, email, or copy thereof, and to words transmitted by telephone, radio, or any method of voice recording.

The words “relate to” or “relating to” mean concerning, referring to, pertaining to, consisting of, containing, describing, involving, comparing, correlating, comparing, mentioning, discussing, evidencing, or having any logical or factual connection with the subject matter dealt with or alluded to the subparagraphs of these Requests.

The words “and,” “and/or,” “or” shall each be deemed to refer to both their conjunctive and disjunctive meanings, being construed as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all information and documents which would otherwise be construed as being outside the request.
